Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number.

HUD uses this information to update its records of the mortgagor's real estate taxes, the location (lot and block numbers) of the property, taxes due dates, and penalty dates. The information cannot be used to verify the last taxes paid during an audit for insurance benefits. This information is required by Statute 12 USC 1713(g) and Title II, Section 207(g) of the National Housing Act. The debtors are protected by the Privacy Act of 1974. There is no sensitive information to be collected.
